SUMMARY

I'm a senior technical writer and content strategist focused on AI-enabled platforms, developer tools, and data. My background also spans cloud-based services, APIs, digital infrastructure, and complex clinical content across organizations such as the Allen Institute for Immunology, Amazon Alexa, Equinix, and Bayer Crop Science.

At the Allen Institute, I lead documentation strategy and knowledge architecture for SDKs, IDEs, AI/ML workflows, data analysis pipelines, and embedded agents. I enjoy translating advanced concepts for audiences ranging from scientists and engineers to consumers and nontechnical users.

SKILLS

- Integration of AI tools into editorial and documentation workflows at scale
- Exceptional editorial judgment and content strategy expertise
- Experience documenting APIs, SDKs, IDEs, AI/ML models, and agentic systems
- Data governance, content strategy, and knowledge architecture
- Cross-functional collaboration with engineering, DevOps, product, and UI/UX teams
- Rapid assimilation of platforms/tools and translation of complex concepts for tech audiences

TOOLS

- Git, GitLab, GitHub, CLI
- GenAI agents/agentic AI using Gemini and Claude Code
- IDEs using Jupyter and SageMaker
- Figma and advanced Photoshop
- Jira, Confluence, Sharepoint
- AI-assisted research and drafting workflows using Perplexity, ChatGPT, and Gemini
- CMS/LMS platforms including Django
- HTML/CSS, Javascript, JSON, Markdown

COURSES

Certified Corporate Trainer, Lean Six Sigma Global Institute

Completed March 2024 (#99378419)
